LOS ANGELES PAPER CONDEMNS THE KU KLUX KLAN

Says "Its Breeder of Race Hate, Stirs Up Strife. We Don't Need Such An Organization in State Of California."

Los Angeles Times
While Los Angeles is not the seat of industrial city in the United States and is growing faster than any of the others, our city has always been a hotbed of race hatred and intolerance. Every race, color, and nationality has been content to live within the law, and the result is a peaceful and happy community.

Such is the condition under which our community has grown and prospered, and the Times wants to report what appears to be the breeding of race hatred and intolerance.

We refer to the organization of the Ku Klux Klan in Los Angeles. We understand that the Klan is now an incorporated association, and can only refer to it by common name.

We do not know that the Klan is associated with more ferocious for the purpose of terrorizing colored citizens and visiting summary punishment on Negroes for alleged crimes.

The propaganda of the Ku Klux Klan has been a mixture of lies and trickery of the order, the claim that it is a patriotic organization, and the claim that it is a defense of the Constitution and the constitutional rights of all citizens.

In the same breath it advertises itself as the "invisible empire" bound together by secret oaths and pledged to maintain white supremacy. In America there is no room for an empire, whether visible or invisible.

When the secret is out, the Klan is a lawless and lawless organization, and why the Klan? Are they content to let the colored people live in peace and equality? Further, the Klan is a lawless organization, and why the Klan? Are they content to let the Negroes as citizens to vote? The Klan is a lawless organization, and why the Klan? Are they content to let the Negroes as citizens to vote?

Los Angeles has more than a million people, and it is a city of peace and order. The Klan is a lawless organization, and why the

ATTORNEY GENERAL BARRE REPLIES TO NEGRO EDITOR

If One Witness Can Be

Disgrace To Civilization

In the issue of the Argus of July 23, under the heading "Was it a Bluff, Attorney General?" the Argus made a comparison between the actions of Attorney General Barre in the case of Shirley Moore of Pike County who allowed a mob to lynch Roy Hammond, twenty and Sheriff J. W. Smith of William of St. Louis County who has been charged with neglect of duty in connection with lynching of a Negro.

We below publish a letter from Mr.
Barre which he offers in the defense of his office in dealing with both cases, and in general as follows:

Hon. J. E. Mitchell,
Editor, St. Louis Argus.

I have a marked copy of your paper of yesterday with the editorial on the actions of this Department. Pike County and in St. Louis County. This is the first time during my six months of office that either a Republican or a Democratic paper has questioned the conduct of the Attorney General.

I am glad to reply to you. I think you are wrong, but I forgive you.
I can only realize how heavy is the burden of the Pike County tragedy lies on the hands of the colored people of this State.

The Pike County lynching was a disgrace to civilization. It should not have been allowed to go on. I am glad to see that you are taking interest in the case.

I sent one of my most trusted men, Alvin Miller, with instructions to make a thorough investigation and to obtain indictments against all guilty parties. Through his efforts citizens at Bowling Green who knew nothing about the crime, were called before the grand jury.

Miller gave a statement to the grand jury, and the jury returned indictments against the guilty parties.
I am glad to see that you are taking
interest in the case.

We worked for several weeks there, after trying to get evidence. We failed to get any evidence. The grand jury returned indictments against the guilty parties.

ANTI-LYNCHING BILL DIES IN MO. SENATE AS XTRA SESSION CLOSES

Senator Anderson Of Saint
Louis Failed To Call Up
For Consideration During Closing Hours.

Moore And Davidson Work
Hard For Measure. Party
Pledges Unredeemed.

The extra session of the Fifty-first General Assembly of the Missouri Legislature closed on Sunday morning, July 24th after a heated debate during the closing hours.

The people of the State will not know what became of our antilynching bill, which was favorably reported to the House and Senate by their respective committees on Criminal Jurisprudence.

The House Bill which was introduced by the bill clerk of the House, after the bill had been amended so as to make it conform to the wishes of the members of the bill.

In the mean while a similar bill was introduced in the Senate by Sen.
Anderson of St. Louis. The Senate Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence, which was favorable to the bill, had not yet reported on the bill.

The bill would surely pass that body in time for it to go back to the House. "Senator Bill" and as such would have little or no trouble the second time.

In keeping with his promise, Senator Anderson of St. Louis had a public hearing on the bill before the Senate Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence, which was chairman.

This Committee made no favorable report on the bill, but Mr. Anderson who introduced the bill never called the bill before the Senate. Thus the antilynching bill "died" in the Senate for lack of some one to call it up for consideration.

WATER ACT AN EXCITING
FEATURE OF THE PROGRAM
AT BOOKER WASHINGTON

An aquatic novelty features an unusually entertaining vaudeville bill at the Booker Washington theatre this week. The act is performed in a glass tank filled with water, and done by a man and woman, the Swan, a clever performing Water Lion, and a persistent Brazilian Crocodile.

The woman feeds and plays with the lion under water. The man does gymnastics beneath the surface and also performs with aquatic animals. Periods of considerable time are spent in the water without taking air. The woman and man play ball and eat a banana while under. The act closes with a wrestling match between the man and the crocodile because of the fight and one half foot sea animal to get in the fray. The act is full of excitement.

Bell and Bell are the certain rate. They have a help act song and dancing with a few revamped jokes woven in a spangle in which the woman does the tongue twisting.

The Dixie Cox Trio of females open in a whirlwind of singing and frolic. The act is replete with artistic dancing and musical melodies. One of the trio gets the prize endearing singing "The World Always Remains Blue" to which she adds some acrobatic dancing. A novel and comical dance finale ends the act.

Thomas and Watson another mixed troupe have in their act a variety of results in a series of rapid fire. Thomas, who is used by the woman's tongue, also does some acrobatic stunts with a well sung semi-classic. A few jokes and narratives followed by an interpretation of the Blues to "The Blues" to which she adds some acrobatic dancing. A novel and comical dance finale ends the act.

Another high class vaudeville bill will be presented at the Booker Washington next week. The performers will be: Virginia Liston, creator of "Titanic Blues"; a novel and comical act in a novelty act; Clifford Ross, a lone comedian; Miss "Stringbean"; sweet-sung "May" and "Joe" "Stringbeans"; "Stringbeans" is a popular favorite with the Booker Washington theatre-goers. She will be introduced as the wife of the late Butler May who as "Stringbean" was the most sensational comedian of the stage.

PIANO CONTESTS START

J. A. Jackson of New York, who is on the editorial staff of "The Billboard," a weekly theatrical digest, and review of the show world, has been one of the visiting dignitaries this week. The Billboard only recently turned its attention to the Negro interest in the show world and placed Mr. Jackson in charge.

AT THE MOVIES

Universal Week At The Star With Many Special Features.

Next week will be "Universal Week" at the Star Theatre. The program will open with "Reputation" on Sunday and Monday. It is the story of Laura Elgin, a girl who, after losing her husband and child, and later, under an assumed name, becomes the most beloved actress of the day and of her child, raised in an orphan asylum, who inherits her mother's talent and beauty, plus everything of the big out.

A picture of Man's Bravery and Woman's Devotion, as inspiring and thrilling as any of the big out. ALSO SECOND EPISODE OF "THE TERROR TRAIL" and Comedy.

The regular shows each Thursday night and promises to attract quite a wide attention.

Next Thursday in a new feature, "Through the Back Door," it is said to be quite different from any thing Miss Pickford has yet attempted. A life brings the spectre of divorce into her home, she becomes a beautiful, disfigured sort of person through grief for a child she believed dead.

The problem of restoring happiness to this household falls to the lot of Miss Pickford in one of her humble character roles. There are innumerable complications, some of them laughable, others quite tragic, all leading up to a denouement logical and satisfying.

This Sunday, the feature will be "Marguerite Clark in 'Scrambled Wives'." The story tells of Mary Pickford's cousin, a capricious young lady who is a result of an illegitimate union.

On Sunday, "The Yellow Arm" and Comedy.

hallucinatory story and the most spectacular treatment in anything supernatural powers and who manipulates the sleeping capacity of others and uses them as his tools in his mad scheme to rule the world.

of his fantastic story is worked out along the lines of logic and under a powerful impetus of real passion. Two friends are in love with a girl. One of them is found dead—murdered in his bed, the last of a sequence of victims of this last victim has been prophesied by Calligan's slave, the somnambulist, and a suspicion attaches to the pair, but the doctor has a successful ally. Finally, however, his resourcefulness and cunning are not escaping and a chase ensues which leads to an intense suspense and a denouement as unexpected and unusual as can be found in American short stories famous for their elixirs.

On Sunday, Eva Novak in "Waves of the North" will be presented. It is the story of a beautiful woman's adventures in the frozen wastes of Alaska where the passions of men know no laws. The Aurora Borealis figures in the scene.

Tom Mix in "Big Town Round-Up" At Casino Sunday

Tom Mix in "The Big Town Round-Up" will be featured at the Casino Theatre Sunday. It is a rapid round-up of romance in which both ranch life and city life figure. In which Mix, the cowboy, falls in love with a society belle following an accidental meeting in which he battles fiercely at intervals with things seeking his life, and appears to acquire the habit of heroic rescue of maidens in peril. It is a case of thrill after thrill, narrow escapes, of many daring and shrewd resourcefulness.

This play shows Mix at his very best. But it also contains a vein of humor that is contagious and serves as a relief from the high tension which accompanies the development of the young ranch owner's adventures in the city in pursuit of the romance born "Jack home."

"The Last of The Mohicans" At The Lincoln Sunday

"The Last of The Mohicans" comes to the Lincoln Theatre Sunday. It is a "Maurice Tourneur" feature filled with thrilling episodes. From the very start of the story, Tourneur, with his artistic touch, makes his audience take to the days when America was young. Indian's enmity dwells starkly cold chills running up and down the spine. When a noise is heard by one of the girls—the audience holds its breath with her as she peers into the awe-some gloom of the forest, looking for the sign of the red skin!

The attack on the fort, the massacre, the blowing up of the powder magazines, everything combines to make this feature one of the notable ones in the career of Maurice Tourneur. The gentle love of Ursula for the pale-faced maiden, and her regal form, and the way the story works out, cause us to stop and think.

CLUB PRESIDENTS TO MEET AT JAZZLAND WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Will Attend Luncheon And Arrange Plans And Dates Of Contest To Be Started Soon.

The arrangements for the Popular Club Contest at Jazzland Palace and Garden will be completed next Wednesday when the presidents of the various clubs in the city will attend a luncheon at Jazzland and fix the dates for their entertainments. The presidents in attendance will be sent out at once. It is included but Mr. Tourneur requests that any president who has an announcement to be made, should consider the invitation general and appears at the luncheon Wednesday night. The cash prize of $200 will be awarded the winning club and the respective conditions will be explained at the luncheon.

Special Benefit Night Another feature at Jazzland, recently adopted is the special night for secret societies, lodges, fraternal and charitable organizations. Dates for such can be secured on very favorable and attractive terms by the organizers of Chas. H. Tipton at the Booker Washington Theatre any night between 8 and 11, or on application by phone.

"The People's Hospital" will have a benefit on Friday, August 25, and a testimonial will be tendered the St. Louis Glaucoma Hospital Club on Monday, August 26.

During the Harrogate, assisted by Ed. Brown's Quartette, was the feature attraction at Blandville, Ill., August 4.

Elks Ramble At Jazzland A Wonderful Success

"Monday," August 1 witnessed the first affair at Jazzland given by any other than the regular management. The Elks of Elks No. 113 sponsored the entertainment, being the first organization to secure such a large gathering under the new building arrangements. Later, inaugurated by Mr. Tipton, where the Elks of Elks No. 113, Lodge, Fraternal and Charitable organizations may have use of the place on very attractive terms.

The lodge packed and jammed every inch of available space, in spite of the fact that no less than three public affairs of unimpeachable private character included in the Elks Convention were in progress.

Incidentally the possibility of the big garden, when fully opened, for the community, was most vigorously demonstrated.

The Elks affair was a ramble, given for the purpose of raising money to send a delegation to the national convention, to be held this year at Boston. It is said that the party will only raised enough money to send a delegation there and back but have a handsome balance in the Elks strong box.

The Elks are active in several ways. It was reported that the Elks of Elks No. 113, Lodge, Fraternal and Charitable organizations may have use of the place on very attractive terms.

Negro Tabernacle Rally

"Bible Says, 'Take A Wife, and Do Not Marry A Slave Girl. Why Should I Marry A Slave Girl?'"

"NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The Bible says to a man 'Take a wife, do not marry a slave girl.' Why should I marry a slave girl? Why should the world have me for marrying the woman I love? I am sure I have lived up to all the rules my loving husband would observe."

"This famous sermon was held for the purpose of collecting money to meet a deficit due to the purchase of the church building by the Negro Tabernacle, who now own the tabernacle, and the former chaplain, Henry, who had been preaching to him."
